The Benefits

If you sell a security, you pay tax on 50% of the capital gain.

However, when you donate a gift of securities to Centennial Infant & Child Centre Foundation the taxable capital gain is completely eliminated

AND

You receive a tax receipt for the full market value of the security in the amount of the closing trading price on the day The Centennial Infant and Child Centre Foundation receives the security.

This multiplies the impact of the tax benefit of your charitable giving

Table with 3 columns: Possible Tax Benefit Example, Sell security and give cash, Donate security 'in kind'. Rows include Market value of security, Cost base, Capital gain, Taxable capital gain (50%), Tax due on gain at Marginal Rate (E.g.: 43%), Tax receipt for gift, Total Tax Credit, and Net tax savings.

Disclaimer: This information is general in nature and does not constitute legal or financial advice. The Centennial Infant and Child Centre Foundation recommends that before making any gift of securities of any size, a donor consults with his/her professional financial advisor(s) for the tax, financial and/or estate planning implications.
